

The airwaves are public property and the content of transmissions must be balanced. If you permit anti-Kerry smear for a particular medium asset, you must make sure the station balances the bias. That is why we have the FCC. I don't want public media to become propagandistic.